

Ukravtoprom reports that in December 2024, Ukrainians purchased almost 3.8 thousand cars with battery power sources (new and used), 18% less than a year earlier.

In May 2025, 1,257 new battery-powered vehicles (BEVs) were sold in Ukraine, which is 93% more than in the same period last year. This is reported by Ukravtoprom. Compared to April 2025, demand for new ...

Ukraine welcomed used BEVs thanks to customs duty and VAT exemptions. What followed was that many mechanics specialized in BEVs and charging networks multiplied around Ukraine. However, it...

Ukraine's appetite for zero-emission transport keeps accelerating. According to fresh Ukravtoprom data, April 2025 registrations of battery-electric vehicles jumped 37 % year-on-year. The surge was driven by ...

In January of this year, 2,873 battery electric vehicles (BEVs) were added to the Ukrainian vehicle fleet, according to Ukravtoprom's Telegram channel. The majority of registered electric vehicles were passenger ...

Powered solely by the electricity stored in their high-voltage batteries, battery electric vehicles (BEVs) are either driven by a single unit or a combination of (alternating current or...

In January 2026, 2873 units of battery-electric vehicles (BEVs) were added to the Ukrainian fleet, which is 21% less than in January 2025. This is said in a statement by the UkrAutoprom association, ...

Discover the most popular new electric vehicles in Ukraine as of June 2025. Full ranking of top-selling EVs including BYD, Tesla, Volkswagen, Hyundai, and more.

Ukrainian domestic sales of battery electric vehicles (BEV) surged in 2023, despite the ongoing Russian military invasion of the country, data from the Ukrainian automotive association Ukravtoprom shows.

Remember that article on Albania and its 57% BEV share? Well, the good news just keeps on coming. Now it's time to report that Ukraine reached 39% BEV share in November!

Web: <https://rrrprojects.co.za>