

Pennycuick said Brandywine Heights Area School District will receive $300,000 for the project to install a 3,806-kilowatt ground mount and parking canopy photovoltaic system on the high ...

For public schools, this legislation presents a rare and time-sensitive opportunity to still receive direct payments (think cash) for investing in solar and geothermal energy systems.

BERKS COUNTY, Pa. - State lawmakers announced funding for solar energy projects in two Berks County school districts today.

The company operates threemajor production bases, encompassing nearly 50,000 square meters of production area. Its main business includes various photovoltaic fixed ground mounting ...

The Denver district this November will seek voter approval for an ambitious $975 million bond package that includes funding for various building projects including solar.

Eligible applicants for these grants included school districts, intermediate units, technical schools, charter schools, and colleges.

Five schools across Schuylkill County are set to benefit from a major investment in renewable energy thanks to $2.3 million in state funding awarded through the Solar for Schools ...

In Centre County, the State College Area School District will receive $300,000 to install a 630-kilowatt photovoltaic system on the roof of Park Forest Middle School. Solar for Schools funds ...

Four school districts in Washington, Greene and Fayette counties, along with a career and technology center and an intermediate unit were among the dozens that received a piece of the ...

The Denver district this November will seek voter approval for an ...

The Clairton City School District was awarded $361,990 to support a solar power project that will cut energy costs and expand learning opportunities for students.

Web: <https://rrrprojects.co.za>