

This paper will outline the scientific principles of the environmental design of the Old City of Sana'a and the environmental characteristics of the green spaces created by the city, and it will some details ...

Waste Management Waste management and recycling are severely lacking. Waste accumulation impacts public health and environment.

This presentation focuses on the environmental challenges faced in Sana'a, Yemen, and explores both local and global solutions. It aims to highlight the interconnectedness of local actions and global ...

This study is based on the quantitative sustainability assessment of solid waste management in Sanaa Yemen. The questionnaire survey has gone through a pilot study for a reliability test with 17 ...

Al-Sanaa offers expert environmental consulting, impact assessments, and sustainability planning to protect natural resources and promote eco-friendly development.

The evolution in materials" technology in the last decades resulted in interesting projects that aimed at preserving the environment and energy and reduce pollution.

The capital of Yemen, Sanaa, faces numerous challenges in the realms of environmental sustainability, given the country"s political instability and ongoing humanitarian issues.

The series explores issues within economic, political, and environmental themes, aiming to inform discussion and policymaking related to Yemen that foster sustainable peace.

On-site spatial observation and interviews were conducted in addition to the available information on green spaces during the past decades. The study revealed the extent of the deterioration of green ...

The study aims to identify the current conditions of the traditional neighborhood (Hara) environment of Sana'a old city and to evaluate the outcomes of adaptive reuse.

Web: <https://rrrprojects.co.za>