

The Freetown Heat Action Plan is Africa's first and it outlines targeted actions, policies, and partnerships to enhance heat resilience for vulnerable communities.

Learn more about Freetown's recent emergence as a trailblazer in leveraging climate data, to drive impactful strategies and enable transformative initiatives.

In a landmark gathering of regional leaders and climate stakeholders, the African Urban Heat Summit took center stage on February 6, 2025, at the Radisson Blu Hotel in Aberdeen, ...

Climate change is already resulting in rising temperatures and even more so in Freetown as it experiences the urban heat island effect. The urban heat island (UHI) impact shows a higher air ...

On Friday, February 7, 2025, a day after the successful African Urban Heat Summit, the Mayor of Freetown, Yvonne Aki-Sawyerr OBE, led a delegation on a tour of key climate resilience and heat ...

As a rapidly urbanising coastal city with high levels of deforestation, Freetown is increasingly vulnerable to the effects of climate change. To address these challenges Freetown's ...

This city energy profile is developed as part of the Enabling African Cities for Transformative Energy Access (ENACT) project being implemented in Freetown, Sierra Leone and Kampala, Uganda, by ...

As rising temperatures threaten African cities, Freetown has taken a pioneering step by unveiling the continent's first Heat Action Plan (HAP) during the African Urban Heat Summit on ...

Freetown Waste Transformers Gross Domestic Product Global Energy Alliance for People and Planet Government of Sierra Leone Improved cook stoves International Development ...

Sierra Leone's capital, Freetown, has a slum called Kroo Bay which looks like an overheating engine from afar. The West African sun beats down on thousands of rust-coloured tin ...

Web: <https://rrrprojects.co.za>