

Twenty-two new fire stations were also constructed across the country and six more are currently being built in areas such as Charity, Wismar, Parika and the Soesdyke Highway.

THE Guyana Fire Service (GFS) continues to make strides in modernising its firefighting capabilities with the recent deployment of the Bronto Skylift--an advanced aerial firefighting platform ...

This cutting-edge machinery is capable of reaching heights of up to 120 feet, making it one of the most efficient equipment for battling fires in high-rise buildings and saving lives. ...

With the core objective of improving the long-term performance of cabin-type energy storages, this paper proposes a collaborative design and modularized assembly technology of cabin-type energy ...

The Government plans to purchase more firefighting equipment for the Fire Service in 2024 as part of its focus on fire prevention and safety. These include the acquisition of a new ...

The Minister said the government will continue to support the Fire Service, as he revealed that another fire boat, a new skylift, and three or four appliances will be procured to boost ...

Let's face it - while everyone's busy hyping up solar panels and wind turbines, the real drama unfolds in those sleek metal boxes storing all that precious energy. Modern new energy storage cabin fire ...

Minister of Home Affairs, Oneidge Walrond observes a demonstration of fire service equipment in action. The engagement highlights the Ministry's ongoing commitment to strengthening ...

These investments along with the upcoming acquisition of a rescue and firefighting vehicle, an all-terrain fire fighting vehicle, and a crash tender will significantly enhance the GFS" ...

THE Guyana Fire Service (GFS) is making bold strides in its mission to modernise its operations and improve emergency response, proudly boasting of having the most advanced ...

Web: <https://rrrprojects.co.za>