

Sida is allocating SEK 30 million for 2025, to respond to the most acute humanitarian needs and phase out of the crisis response in Honduras. In line with the 2025 HNRP for Honduras, the focus of Sida ...

The Demand Response Management System Market in Honduras is growing due to the increasing need for energy efficiency and cost reduction. As energy consumption continues to rise, businesses and ...

Honduras is experiencing a multifaceted crisis, mainly due to widespread violence, climate extremes and forced population movements.

In response, the National Humanitarian Forum has worked closely with the State to address these urgent needs. However, critical funding shortages threaten critical response areas, ...

Understand the complexities of the Honduras protests: from deep-seated economic and political grievances to the government's response and on-the-ground impact.

In 2024, humanitarian partners in Honduras will seek to respond to the needs of 1.3 million people, requiring US$205 million. The response is based on collectively identified shocks that drive ...

Honduras faces escalating humanitarian needs in 2025, driven by climate change, food insecurity, and economic challenges. ReliefWeb outlines critical response plans to address these ...

The provision of technical, coordination and planning support to the Honduras Government on reconstruction, reparation, housing, land and property rights, planned relocations, ...

In the first half of 2025, over 14,100 migrants returned to Honduras after reaching Mexico, reflecting a trend of migrants choosing to return south after months, sometimes years, caught in limbo across ...

This joint analysis and planning effort is essential to meeting humanitarian needs in Honduras. Since 2021, the Network has carried out annual needs analyses and response plans to complement the ...

Web: <https://rrrprojects.co.za>