

California -- EDF Renewables North America announced a 15-year virtual power purchase agreement (VPPA) with McDonald's Corp (NYSE: MCD). The 255 MWac / 332 MWdc ...

The McDonald's team was determined through their use of innovative contracting structures to execute a major solar procurement that would significantly reduce their greenhouse gas emissions, and they ...

Power producer EDF Renewables North America signed a 15-year virtual power purchase agreement (VPPA) with McDonald's, which will help the fast-food chain meet its sustainability goals.

EDF Renewables North America has signed a 15-year 332MWdc Virtual Power Purchase Agreement (VPPA) with McDonald's USA. The power will come from the Apollo solar ...

The Blue Jay solar project is expected to be fully operational in 2023. Once complete, McDonald's and its suppliers' combined electricity purchase is expected to amount to an estimated ...

EDF Renewables North America has signed a 15-year virtual power purchase agreement (VPPA) with McDonald's Corp. The 255 MW AC / 332 MW DC Apollo Solar project, located in Texas, ...

This innovative aggregation of a major company purchasing power jointly with its logistics partners means the electricity load of McDonald's USA's entire logistics supply chain for all its U.S. ...

The McDonald's project is not only a new attempt for Astronergy, but also a carrying-out action for its mission. A vast amount of PV modules are equipped on the rooftop of McDonald's Net-Zero Restaurant.

In McDonald's restaurants around the world, we're committed to energy efficiency and renewable energy in a big way. The two U.S. investments we announced today, called large scale ...

The partnership is expected to meet the electricity consumption needs of over 1,200 McDonald's restaurants.

Web: <https://rrrprojects.co.za>