

By approving the draft law, the Slovak government confirmed its commitment to meeting legislative requirements from European regulations while supporting the development of a modern, safe, and ...

Total energy supply (TES) includes all the energy produced in or imported to a country, minus that which is exported or stored. It represents all the energy required to supply end users in the country.

The energy policy of the Slovak Republic (EP SR) was initially based on four basic pillars - energy security; energy efficiency; competitiveness and sustainable energy.

A major investment is currently in the permitting process, which consists of the construction of the largest battery storage facility in Slovakia, and which will be associated with the ...

This article discusses renewable energy laws in Slovakia, discussing dispute resolution, storage, foreign investment and international obligations, and more.

As the demand for electric vehicles, portable electronics, and energy storage grows, Slovakia is becoming a key market for lithium batteries in Europe. This growth offers great ...

Introduction of a new concept of an overriding public interest in renewable energy projects, relevant mainly in conjunction with the amended EIA Act and its newly introduced unified permitting process.

Regulation covers gas production, import, storage, transmission, distribution, and supply. Increasing focus on diversification of gas sources and infrastructure (e.g., reverse flow pipelines, LNG).

Proposal 1: Create an EU Energy Storage Directive with binding national targets ?Underpinning investor confidence and stimulating companies to roll-out LDES solutions requires long-term system planning ...

Energy storage batteries have emerged as the missing link, with six industrial-scale projects commissioned in Q1 2024 alone. But is this growth sustainable, and what technical hurdles remain?

Web: <https://rrrprojects.co.za>