

How many electric vehicles did Tajikistan import in 2023?

“According to the government's Customs Service,Tajikistan imported 3,316 electric vehicles worth $59 million in 2023. As many as 5,266 electric vehicles worth $76.4 million were exported in the first half of this year,which is 26.7% of the total number of imported vehicles (over 19,700),” the ministry said.

Does Tajikistan have an electric transport program for 2023-2027?

Recall,the government adopted the program for development of electric transport in Tajikistan for 2023-2027 on October 31,2022. The program,in particular,provides for exempting the import of electric transport from payment of taxes and customs duties.

Should CIS members use electric vehicles in Tajikistan?

“Tajikistan is one of CIS members generating eco-friendly,cheap electricity. Therefore,using electric vehicles in this country is relevant and effective from every angle,especially at a time when fuel prices are rising,” the press release quoted Transport Minister Azim Ibrohim as saying.

Should Tajiks import electric cars?

CABAR.asia says Tajiks who already own an electric car say their use is inexpensive,safe,and environmentally friendly,so the government should encourage the import of electric cars. Currently,owners of electric cars charge their cars at home and they pay for electricity as residential customers - 26.51 dirams per 1 kWh of electricity.

The government is expected to offer various incentives to attract investment in the EV sector, such as tax breaks, subsidies, and grants for research and development. Additionally, ...

Electric buses, EV incentives, and new infrastructure are transforming Dushanbe's streets, with China emerging as Tajikistan's main partner in its green transport push.

The Program for the Development of Electric Transport in the Republic of Tajikistan for 2023-2028 (hereinafter referred to as the Program) was developed with the aim of increasing the ...

The program focuses on developing electric vehicle servicing technologies, creating new job opportunities, and reducing Tajikistan's dependency on imported fuel. Additionally, transitioning ...

DUSHANBE. Aug 15 (Interfax) - Tajikistan is boosting imports of electric vehicles and planning domestic production together with Chinese partners, the Tajik Transport Ministry said. “According to the ...

The Government of Tajikistan has approved additional support measures for importers of environmentally friendly transport, Sputnik Tajikistan reports. From mid-May, electric cars, electric ...

In the context of the rapidly developing trend towards eco-friendly transport, Tajikistan actively follows international standards. The country is implementing the "State Program for the ...

The Government of Tajikistan has instructed relevant ministries to speed up the process of the establishment of production of electric vehicles inside the country. It is also instructed to take ...

Key findings: The analysis highlights several structural features that shape Tajikistan's e-mobility pathway. First, the country's hydropower-based electricity system offers a low-carbon ...

The European Union Project Supports Tajikistan in Promoting Electric Mobility 05 November 2025
Dushanbe, Tajikistan - Tajikistan is witnessing a rapid increase in the number of ...

Web: <https://rrrprojects.co.za>