

Police said a co-worker later discovered the victim and immediately called 911. The UPS worker succumbed to their injuries at the scene, despite life-saving measures from medical personnel. In...

A UPS employee who was killed Sunday afternoon by "falling packages" while loading a trailer at the company's Richmond facility has been identified by the family as Shelma Reyna, a mother of five.

All three were shot to death last Friday just after noon local time, when a man wearing a UPS uniform came to their door and was able to get inside the home, prosecutors said in a criminal...

Murray was found shot in a vehicle at the UPS warehouse facility parking lot in the 5400 block of West 81st Street just before 10 p.m. Aug. 19, 2025. He died after being taken to St. Vincent...

Questions continue to mount after what appears to be a tragic accident at an East Bay UPS facility. Shelma Reyna Guerrero was killed over the weekend while working at the Richmond facility.

UPS has responded after a mother was reportedly found dead under a pile of packages in a cargo trailer. Shelma Reyna, 43, was loading a cargo trailer when she was hit by a "landslide" of parcels, ...

Richmond, CA (WorkersCompensation) - First responders said a UPS worker found under a pile of packages died from the packages falling on her. On Sept. 21, UPS driver Shelma Reyna Guerrero, ...

A UPS worker in California died after a stack of packages collapsed on her inside a cargo trailer, with officials calling the case an industrial accident. Richmond police said 43-year-old driver Shelma Reyna ...

A family is grieving the loss of Shelma Reyna, a mother and UPS employee, who was killed on the job at its Richmond facility.

A tragic industrial accident Sunday, Sept. 21, claimed the life of a UPS worker in Richmond. Officers responded to reports of an accident in the 1600 block of Atlas Road at approximately 4:16 p.m.

Web: <https://rrrprojects.co.za>